

Reduced Calendars & Public Window Closures - COVID 19

In response to the numerous public health orders and continually changing public safety concerns related to COVID-19, Yolo Superior Court has requested and the Chief Justice of the California Supreme Court has issued an emergency order closing the Court. This order is in effect until further notice. The Court will remain open with reduced calendars. The public windows will be closed to the public, except for the emergency or the cases listed below. Please check the Court website regularly for updates: <http://www.yolo.courts.ca.gov>

As permitted under Government Code section 68115, the court closure will have the effect of being a public holiday as far as statutory or other timelines are concerned.
